The 1960 POT POURRI is an experiment. The overall size of the book has been decreased in an effort to do away with much of the superfluous material present in POT POURRIs of the past. In order to give the book a cleaner appearance the photographs have been increased in size and decreased in number. For this same reason the type style has been changed to a simpler, more modern face. The book is consolidated into a single volume, thereby eliminating the cumbersome supplement. It is hoped that these changes make the 1960 POT POURRI a more interesting yearbook.

1960

Mr. M. Lawrence Shields, A.B.

It is unfortunate that more of us did not have the opportunity — as older generations had — of knowing Mr. M. Lawrence Shields.

Mr. Shields came to Andover over twenty-five years ago as an assistant track coach. He had just come from Antwerp, where he had placed third in the 1500 meter run of the 1920 Olympics. Three years later he became an instructor in biology, a position which he held until 1942, taking time off only to participate in a map-making expedition to Labrador. In 1942 he went into the navy, where he attained the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He returned to Andover to become Alumni Secretary, where he remained until 1951 when he became Secretary of the Academy, the position he held until his retirement.

One of Mr. Shield's most notable characteristics is his fascinating sense of humor. It seems as if it is always present, whether it be to cheer someone up, to poke fun at someone, or just to display an amazing wit. In everything he does, his humor shows. For instance, Mr. Shields has given only one demerit in his career. This was when he offered a senior in his dormitory the option of taking a demerit or carrying a load of wood to his housemaster's apartment. The boy chose the former alternative, and received the demerit to everyone's surprise, including Mr. Shields.

It is impossible to transmit the true character of Mr. Shields in a few words. He is an amazing man who has devoted his whole life to Andover. In appreciation of his service, we dedicate the 1960 Pot Pourri to him, hoping that he has many happy years before him.

It would take more "intellectual curiosity" than Andover boys can muster to turn the Idylls of the King into an adventure in exciting literature, or Moby Dick, encumbered with dreary detail about whaling and the anatomy of its object, into unparalleled marine excitement. It was Harford W. H. Powel who first convinced us that English teachers, as well as students, turn pale when the time comes to decipher Melville's digressions or unattractive Tennyson poetry.

Who else would train his troops to identify the play and lines from which Shakespeare quotations were taken, and then test them with lines he composed himself? You call it trickery? We call it sport. Not one of that famous class of 1958 was man enough to call the lines a fraud. All failed the test, but when the trick was announced, Shakespeare was more a sport and less a grind.

With Mr. Powel's retirement, Andover is losing a man whose quick mind and tongue injected spirit into English. A keen critic, a lively instructor, a fine friend, and as spontaneous a teacher as we've yet enjoyed talking with, Harford W. H. Powel leaves a remarkable reputation behind. Grateful, refreshed students wish him well.

Harford W. H. Powel, Jr.

Ruth M. Whitehill

Where did befogged Seniors turn for assistance when Northeast Iowa Junior College demanded from 6Z? To that unfailing source of answers, Miss Ruth M. Whitehill, secretary to the Dean of Students.

From now on, a new face will greet and answer the questions of mystified Seniors. After twenty years at Andover, Miss Whitehill is retiring this year. Writing a description doing justice to Miss Whitehill's service to Andover, and especially to its worried Seniors, would be impossible. We can only echo the thanks that have been uttered innumerable times during her long Andover career.

People like Miss Whitehill are welcome authorities for our often insignificant questions.

In Memoriam

No matter how large Andover becomes, the death of one of its students is a sad loss. For every student is a part of the school as well as an individual, and thus one's death affects the entire Academy. In the summer before our Senior year, John Leslie Williams '61, died in a bicycle accident.

During his two years at Andover, he showed himself to be outstanding in high character, one of the most courteous, considerate, and unselfish of Andover men.

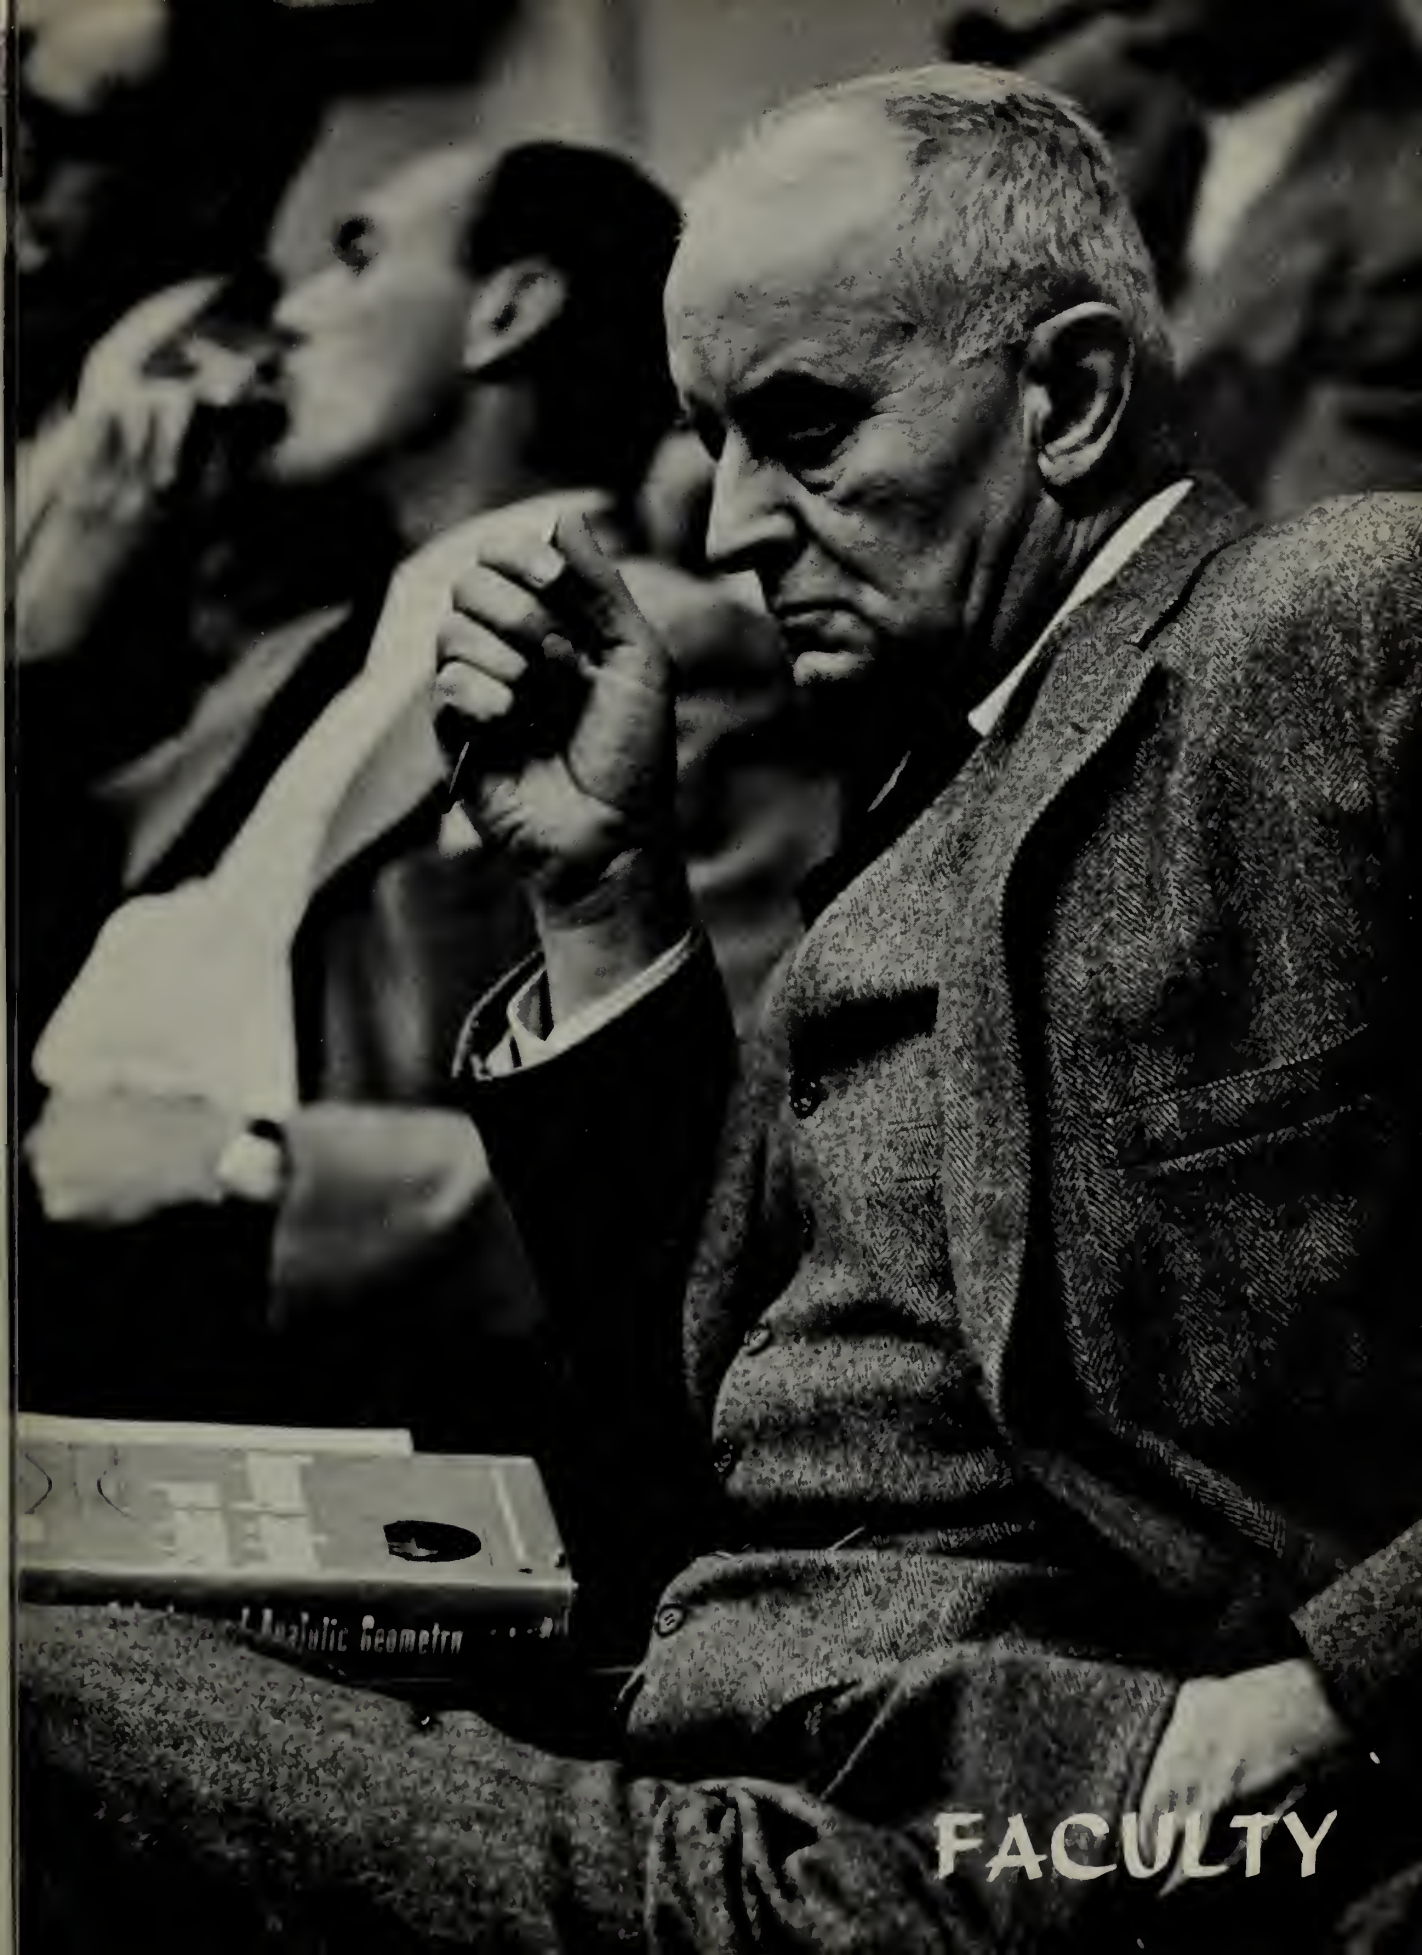

Jack Williams entered Andover as a Junior in September, 1957, from the Lexington Massachusetts Junior High School. His Junior year was spent at Williams Hall, his Lower Middle year in Fay House. Last year he finished on the Second Honor

Roll for the Spring Term. He was Vice-President of the Audio Club, and an unusually enterprising worker with the Audio-Visual Department. He was in charge of the sound effects for "Coriolanus."

During the summer of 1959, he embarked on a cross-country bicycle trip alone, intending to visit his roommate in Colorado. Some time in the evening of August 2 he was killed, apparently having been run into by some truck or automobile.

Of Jack Williams, Mr. Benedict said: "In my opinion we have lost one of the finest and most promising boys in school, one whose ideals and energy and intellectual curiosity were strong grounds for predicting a very distinguished career."

Those poignant details of Andover routine already begin to fade as 240 men disperse in directions characteristically various. Bland chicken and glue are forgotten as the hefty tenderloins of the Senior-Faculty dinner assuage our memories' battered taste buds. Monotonous homework and discouraging exams become part of a happily forgotten side of Andover. Favorite classes and teachers, and tests we racked, prevail in our already mellow recollections.

Rightly we hesitate to accept this picture of Andover. As long as we strive toward honesty with ourselves, such a saccharine memory of P.A. disturbs us. As we grow older, and happiness becomes more important than honesty, we will blissfully accept that delightful impression of Andover left by narcotic nostalgia. But for now we dislike nostalgia's deceit.

And so now, just after graduation, we should take advantage of our peculiar state. Without the distortion that nostalgia produces, and without that too critical outlook that we held during our years at Andover, we can now most freely explore our school and class.

Looking at the class as a whole, we notice that no group dominated every area. Those who led the list of scholars were categorically, and often socially, limited to their own field. Others found achievement and glory afield, afoot, and afloat. They were outstanding only as athletes, rarely elsewhere. And we cannot ignore those fancifully referred to as "The Leaders." Mixtures of scholarship, gamesmanship, and salesmanship, these politicians were, we suppose, as essential to the class as were the scholars and the athletes.

Rounding out the class were the proud minorities: the extra-curricularites, the thinkers, the artists, the poets, the musicians, the Good Men, the prize-winners, the Book Bag Boys, and the scientists.

These categories all share certain feelings, and the mutual feelings in turn determine the character of the class.

All members were ardent critics. They evaluated those above and below them. They evaluated themselves, though often with slight prejudice. Further, most abhorred the conventional, the stuffy, the insincere. And most complained about Andover while in attendance, but speak its name with matchless pride when She asks: "Where did you go to school?"

If we now have some idea about the nature of the class then let's consider what it did for or to Andover. It entered and left without denting such bulwarks as daily chapel and commons duty. The schedule got tighter, major rules were increased by one, and pranks were condemned for any who value their records.

But brighter accomplishments mark the course of the Class of '60. As Uppers we won the radio privilege. As Seniors we won the long-sought Thanksgiving recess. Athletically we excelled in football beating Exeter 16-6, as well as in swimming and track.

The class led the school to a $6500 total for the Charities Drive. Four members of the class received National Merit Scholarships. And the class was no doubt marked as the "Program Class," the class that not unflinchingly watched the administration extract over $6,000,000 for the future, at the risk of neglecting the present.

As the future offers every classmate a different road, the graduates of 1960 become less familiar with each other. Reunions will be littered with wives, children, and eventually grandchildren. Former roommates will live on opposite sides of the earth, and former teachers will pass from the earth altogether.

As years pass, Andover's products of 1960 will be lulled into sad yearning for a return to the years when fellowship, fun, and adversity united 240 individuals into a strong class. Nostalgia and old age will begin to mellow true recollections of our Andover.

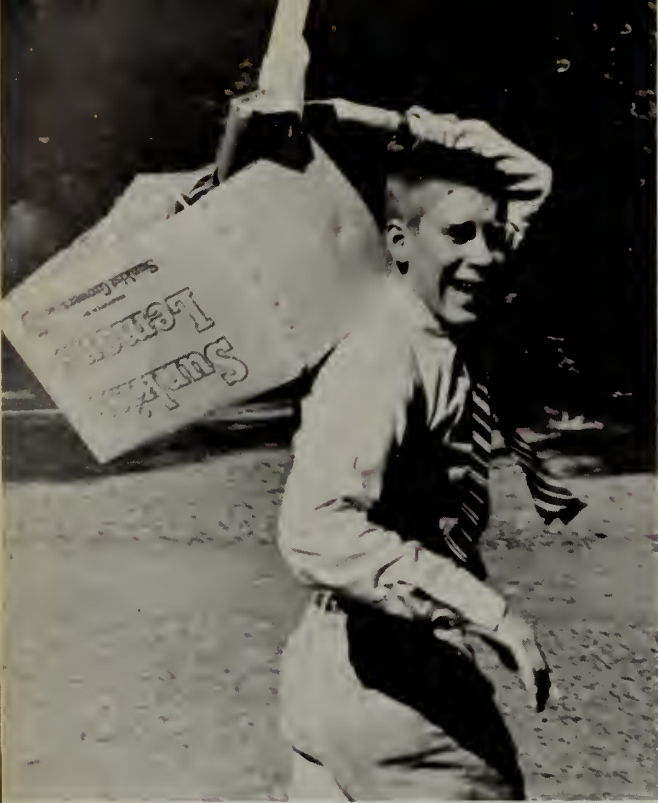

But no force of emotion, science, or time can distort in the members of the Class of 1960 their pride as Sons of Phillips, America's Finest school.

Woodward A. Wickham, Jr.

PREPPING

As two-hundred sixty-nine new boys arrived at Andover this year, the cry of "hey prep" could be heard resounding from one end of the campus to the other. When a new Andover student heard the two words, "hey prep," directed at him, he was immediately filled with terror. "Hey prep" meant only one thing — a senior had some dirty job to be done.

Prepping, one of Andover's most cherished customs, was every bit as spirited this year as it had been in the past. Preps (who seem to be getting smaller every year) could be seen carrying trunks and sofas from one dorm to another, and books up the hill from downtown. Preps gave several shoe-shining demonstrations in Flagstaff Court, and the traditional prep-races were also held in the Court.

After the first week of school and prepping came to an end, seniors easily fell back into the old routine — the preps still wondering what Andover was all about.

ABBOT MIXER

The Andover social season opened on October 2 with the traditional Abbot Mixer, this year held in both the old and new gymnasiums of Andover. Two-hundred twenty-three young ladies were supplied with dates from the Andover student body, and many extra boys were present to dance with any young lady whose date was temporarily lost in the crowd.

The Aces supplied the dance music for the Mixer, and as was customary at Andover dances this year, both the 8 'n' 1 and Sour Grapes played during the intermission.

The highlight of the evening came at ten o'clock when Andover's 1960 rock 'n' roll band (later named The Tyrós) made its debut. The band's vocalist, Tim Gilbert, whose singing resembles that of the Fabulous Fabian, made a big hit singing "Sugaree," "Poison Ivy," and "Boni Maroni."

HAMLET

Brilliant directing and acting produced a triumph in Andover drama as N. Penrose Hallowell, director, and Boylston A. Tompkins '60 as Hamlet, brought a marvelous rendition of Shakespeare's tragedy to the stage. Tompkins received excellent support from Deborah Hayes as Ophelia, Steven M. Dingilian as Polonius, and Andrew W. Teuber as Laertes.

Often inadequate in past years, the stage crew, costumes, and general technical appearance provided a nearly flawless background for the astounding talent presented.

SPRING

PROM

The Spring Prom, Andover's major social event, was a great success as two-hundred thirty-four couples fully enjoyed themselves from Friday to Sunday. The girls arrived Friday afternoon, and most of them were obviously impressed by the beauty of Andover's campus. Friday evening the action really got under way with each class holding its own party. The Seniors, whose party was in Peabody House, had an exceptionally wild time because the Tyros played for a good portion of the evening.

On Saturday morning, most of the prom-goers decided to go to the sanctuary where it was felt Andover's natural beauty could be observed to its fullest. The Senior picnic followed this leisurely morning.

On Saturday evening, the campus took on a new look as both Andover students and dates were outfitted in their most formal regalia. The dance itself was a great success. Don Russel's band supplied the music, and the theme of the prom was Journey to the Center of the Earth. The inside of the gym looked as if it were the inside of a burlap bag.

Sunday morning, with the departure of Andover's week-end guests, things returned to normal up on the hill as each student had only intangible memories of his best girl.

COMMENCEMENT

June 3, 1960. The day which you have worked so hard to reach. The day on which you will receive your diploma which signifies a long, hard struggle.

As most seniors awakened on June 3 and looked out the window, a great many groans must have been muttered. The weather looked very threatening. With this in mind, the place of the commencement exercises, which was originally on the steps of Sam Phil, was changed to inside the chapel.

After hearing a fine commencement address by Mr. Kemper, several awards were made to outstanding members of the student body. Ed Quattlebaum then stepped forward to receive his diploma which symbolized the diplomas which we were to receive in a few moments.

The entire senior class then marched to the cage to form the traditional great circle for the distribution of the diplomas. The exercises ended with a meal in the gymnasium, which, in view of the circumstances, was the best meal ever eaten at Andover by many of the graduates.

THE ANDOVER PROGRAM

The campaign for The Andover Program has come so far so fast that I find it hard to take in fully. . . .

I am deeply grateful. Your support is a massive vote of confidence which has special meaning for schoolmasters. Andover men and women, already a great company, have forged another tie to bind us in service to the school and to American education . . . . .

The Phillips Society played an important role in the success of the school year, from its annual prep picnic to its final meeting of the year. Under the leadership of the Executive Committee, composed of John Bisselle, Ed Quattlebaum, Woody Wickham, and Rick Seifert, the Society in September outlined ambitious plans for a successful year. Most spectacular of its successes was the result of the Charities Drive, which collected more than $6500.

The chief problems which continually plague the Phillips Society, as pointed out by President John Bisselle in his final report at the church meeting, are the lack of incentive in its members at certain times during the year and the organizational difficulties inherent in any such group. Despite the inevitable few problems which developed during the year, the Phillips Society enjoyed a successful year and added considerably to the well-being and name of Andover. Serving coffee at Graham House for guests after Sunday Chapel, providing directions and refreshments for visiting teams, showing the campus to prospective students, carrying mail and assignments to boys in the infirmary, providing interesting forums on international events, or assisting the Lawrence General Hospital, the Phillips Society was at work, often unnoticed and behind the scenes, at once helping Andover to function more smoothly and also helping each boy to be more aware of the needs and problems of the community about him.

BLUE KEY

Help offered

Help needed . . .

Each year the Blue Key helps to open Andover's doors for hundreds of Preps. Questions, fears, and sometimes tears are all disposed of as the members of the Blue Key do their best to give answers and assurance. The Blue Key is made up of outstanding members of the Senior Class, functions primarily during the first weeks of the school year but is always ready to give assistance. Members of the classes of '63, '62, and '61 owe thanks to the 1960 Blue Key.

Under the leadership of Karl Ziegler, the newly formed Sour Grapes provided some real competition for the 8 'n 1 this year. The group which started in 1958 as the Lower Singing Group made its first appearance at the Abbot Mixer and was a big hit. After the Mixer, the "Grapes" sang at the Andover Inn, Rogers Hall, the new dorm dances, and at various assemblies. Some of their more popular numbers were "Sometimes," "Lida Rose," "Small Hotel," and "Coney Island Baby." The "Grapes" plan to finish the year with a trip to Bermuda and by singing at various prep school proms.

Our Dear Adviser

The 1960 Pot Pourri was a new idea in organization, an idea which the board hopes will continue in the future. In behalf of uniformity and more quality both the size of the book and the number of people working to put it out were cut down.

Managing Editor Mike Scharf, provided comic relief, promised a great deal. Andy Combe, the Senior Editor, said little but did a great deal; the 1960

EDITORS AT DEADLINE TIME

Looking for lost copy.

Pot Pourri is greatly indebted to him. John Engel, next year's Editor, helped the '60 Pot Pourri to set an all-time high record for advertising. Jim Blair, the Circulation Manager, had a hand in the selling of more yearbooks than had ever been sold by any Pot Pourri.

Finally the Editors wish to thank Mr. Harford Powel for his help in the planning of this year's book and to thank Mr. Brendan Farrington for his counsel and facilities made available to us.

As ten o'clock approaches on Tuesday night, a small group of frustrated Phillipian editors make a final effort to bring order out of chaos in the form of a newspaper. The scene is a bleak looking room in the basement of Graves Hall, and the group consists of Editors Wickham, Burlingame and Bourne, with an occasional visit from Ad Manager Gardner.

One of the outstanding features of the 1959-60 Phillipian was a habit of consistently well-written and controversial editorials. Whether it was a plea that our headmaster spend more time in Andover, or a resentful slash at an English teacher who was overly strict in a Wednesday assembly, a refreshing change from the usual drab tone of prep school editorials.

A rug on the floor and a radio on the table were major additions to Phillipian equipment, as the paper moved its headquarters to a larger room in Graves Hall, which, if not glamorous, was certainly adequate.

Perhaps the outstanding accomplishment of the 1959-60 Phillipian was the publication of a Phillipian handbook, a manual compiled by Editors Wickham, Burlingame, Winter and Combe to instruct heelers as to the fundamentals of writing a newspaper article and producing pictures for publication. The Phillipian handbook will stand as a permanent symbol of the hard work of the 1959-60 Phillipian.

At the rally.

On the field.

At the Exeter game.

The '59-60 Band had its most successful year in the four years that it has been under the direction of Mr. William B. Clift, with the able assistance of President Karl Ziegler and Vice-President Charles Hanson. The Band year is divided into seasons, the marching season and the concert season. Immediately after the opening of school, the Band starts right in on the marching season with half-time shows at every Varsity Football game. This year's marching season included trips to Mt. Hermon and to Exeter.

The Exeter pageant marks the close of the marching season and the start of the concert season. A concert before the last Saturday-night movie in the Fall and Winter terms has become a tradition of the Concert season. This year joint concerts were held with Deerfield, Rogers Hall, and Walnut Hill. After the concerts with Rogers Hall and Walnut Hill there was a dance for the musicians of both schools. The concert season is brought to a close by a Sunday afternoon concert on the Vista.

This year's marching season reopened with a Sunday afternoon trip to play at a Red Sox baseball game in Boston. Then Marching in the Andover Memorial Day parade marked the end of the school year.

CHORUS

The Phillips Academy Chorus, under the leadership of co-presidents John M. Daniel and Whitney P. Foster and secretary Nicholas W. Danforth, had its best year ever. Mr. Louis G. Davis, in his first year as choirmaster, maintained the high standards set for him by Mr. Schenider, and introduced several new and interesting elements into the chorus program. The most apparent of these was the first Christmas Processional in over ten years, and an increasing amount of acappella choral music.

During the fall term, religious music from every era of Western Christian heritage was performed from the Gregorian chant through Palestrina, Bach, Borniansky, and the twentieth century setting of Puer Nobis by the American composer, Lloyd Pfoutch.

The Radcliffe Freshman Glee Club was the first girls school to perform jointly with the P.A. Chorus. The Chorus also joined with the Fedelio Society of Abbot in a performance highlighted by Handel's Messiah. Joint concerts and dinner dances were held with Dana Hall, the Windsor School, and Walnut Hill.

8 'n 1

The 8 'n 1 enjoyed an extremely successful year under the leadership of Colin Sanderson. The group consisted of Colin Sanderson, John Hartnett, Gage McAfee, Tim Gilbert, Gerry Shea, Tex Daniel, Kit Moore, Nick Danforth and Bob Mathis. During the year the group entertained at such places as the Abbot Mixer, the Spanish Club Tea Dance, and the Tewksbury Hospital, as well as the Spring Prom and a number of other tea dances throughout the year. Their basic repertoire included "The Seine," "We Kissed in a Shadow," and "Cool Water." The 8 'n 1 planned to end the year with a trip to Mexico.

Every spring when the new Philo officers are elected, they promise sweeping changes that will provide livelier debates, larger audiences, and increased prestige for PA debating; but the following year usually passes without much having been accomplished. This year, however, the officers, ably aided by Marc Foster and Langdon Wright, have instigated reforms which have gone a long way toward realizing the above objectives.

Perhaps the most spectacular new feature of Philo this year were the debates with Boston Latin, Exeter, and Abbot Academy. The latter was particularly effective as over one hundred PA stalwarts turned out to glimpse the Abbot lovelies and stimulate their intellects.

The adoption of the Oregon Style of debate, when properly handled, has provided spontaneous and interesting debates. This system differs from the previous one in three important respects: constructive speakers may rebut, the affirmative rebuttalist may rebut the negative rebuttalist, and each constructive speaker is cross-examined by a member of the opposite team.

These reforms have resulted in an increased respect for Andover debating. Proof of this was an invitation to the celebrated Williams Debate Tourney. Unfortunately, because of scheduling conflicts, we were unable to send a team.

FOOTBALL

In the season's opening game, Andover soundly defeated the Northeastern Freshmen, 30 to 14. Combining a well-balanced offense with a strong defense led by captain Chunky Kessler and Joe Barton, the Blue took an early lead and were never seriously threatened.

The following week, Andover met a relatively weak but big Tufts Freshmen squad, and won easily, 30 to 0. The defense showed much improvement over the previous game while the offense continued to function effectively. One encouraging factor was the skill and poise of the lower backfield, led by Mike Moonves and Bob Lux.

At Williamstown, the Blue had to come from behind to defeat a good Williams Frosh team, 16 to 6. Williams scored first in the second quarter, but Webb Harrison and Bumstead Browne tallied for Andover in the second and third quarters respectively, and the rugged Blue defense, playing their best game to date, were able to preserve the lead.

In what was the most thrilling and well-played game of the season, Andover again had to come from behind to defeat Bowdoin, 20 to 14. In the first period, following an initial Frosh touchdown, Webb Harrison took a punt on his own 23 yard line, and with the help of some fine blocking, sprinted 87 yards into the end zone.

The score remained 8 to 6 in favor of Andover until the Blue tallied again to lead 14 to 6. With a few minutes left to play, Bowdoin scored and ran for the extra points, tying the game. Andover took the kickoff and marched steadily downfield to the Bowdoin 29, where Woody Woods threw a beautiful pass to Jim Turchik for the winning touchdown.

The next week, the visiting Andover squad defeated Mt. Hermon in a steady downpour, 12 to 0. Due to the weather, the game was mostly a defensive battle. The first period was scoreless, but in the second quarter, Andover finally penetrated the big Mt. Hermon line, with Mike Bassett scoring from 15 yards out on an option play. The only other scoring came late in the game, as tackle Fred Kenney picked up a Mt. Hermon fumble and ran 8 yards into the end zone.

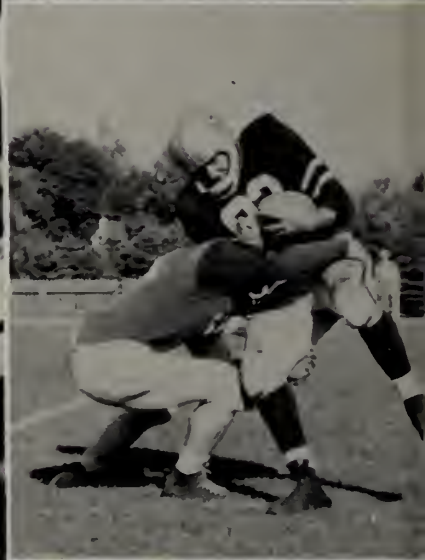

Andover again had to play in a driving rain the next week against Deerfield. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Blue marched 63 yards to a touchdown, with Bumstead Browne scoring from one yard out. Deerfield was forced to punt following the next kickoff, and on the first play from scrimmage, Jim Turchik raced 66 yards to the Green 7 yard line, and Bob Lux scored three plays later. Deerfield's only scoring came after a 75 yard drive, capped by a 17 yard touchdown pass. Early in the third quarter, Andover ended the scoring for the day, with Browne blasting over from the three.

Following a postponed game with Brewster Academy, almost the entire student body journeyed to Exeter, New Hampshire to witness the 79th annual Andover-Exeter game. Favored Andover received the opening kickoff, and ran it back to their own 36. Two plays later, halfback Jim Turchik burst over tackle to the Exeter 9 yard line, and Webb Harrison scored on the next play. For the rest of the period, both teams traded punts, until the Blue again drove deep into Exeter territory and scored on the first play of the second quarter. Following the kickoff to begin the third period, Exeter went 72 yards to score, mostly on the passing of captain Toby Hayes. Neither team could again score, and at the final gun, Andover had its first undefeated, untied season in seven years, and coach Steve Sorota had won his 102nd game.

The following week, the selection of Charlie Kessler, Mike Bassett, Joe Barton, and Webb Harrison to the first string All-New England Prep School team was announced.

Though starting the year off with an unusually young and inexperienced squad, coach DiClemente and the team can look back on a good but anti-climatic season. However, when you consider that five of the starting lineup, as well as many of the secondary players, were injured at the time, these last three games do not seem so disappointing.

In their first game, the team looked good but they were obviously inexperienced. Nonetheless, they defeated Belmont High 5-2.

The team played an extremely exciting game against Yale, holding them scoreless until the last four minutes when Yale broke through for two quick goals. It was the strong team spirit and the fine defensive playing by Gallaudet and Torbert which enabled the Andover squad to do as well as it did.

For the next seven games, the team went undefeated, growing stronger through experience in each game. They dumped Governor Dummer 3-1. In a terrific victory, the team upset the Dartmouth Freshmen 2-0. They then went on to defeat the M.I.T. Freshmen 3-1, the Tufts Freshmen 4-0, Medford High 3-0, Brown Freshmen 3-2 in an overtime, and St. Paul's 4-1. Starving throughout these games were Gibson, Mac-

Murry, Heredia, Garni, Leete, Upton, Peterson, and Cochran on the line. Leading half-backs were captain Hackett, Rogers, Brayton, Peterson, Preston, and Vogel. Outstanding defensive players were Torbert, Stevens, Leavitt, and in the goalie Gallaudet.

But by this time, there were many players injured, among them, five starters. With this badly injured fleet, we attacked Deerfield and were sunk, 2-0. Again the injury-riddled team went on the road only to come back from Harvard with a 2-1 loss.

Luckily, the game with Belmont Hill was called off, giving the team an additional week in which to recuperate for the Exeter game. So they stood, awaiting the Red Men's arrival with a great amount of spirit and a number of half-healed players. It was an exciting game — perhaps the most exciting game ever played between Andover and Exeter — but it ended in a tie.

This was a good year — coach DiClemente did an excellent job of molding a good team out of an unusually young team. Next year promises to be even better as all but five of the lettermen will be returning.

CROSS COUNTRY

During the fall of 1959, the Andover Harriers, captained by John Bissell and coached by Mr. Hallowell, achieved their best records to date: a highly successful season, new course records, and an increase in "enrollment." In recent years the cross-country squad has gained in strength and in quantity, and this year, the fall of 1959, this trend held true: until the Interscholastics at Deerfield, the team was undefeated with decisive victories over all of their opponents; and in the Interscholastics, the team fared well, taking fourth place and ending only two points behind Exeter, the second place team.

In dual-meet competition, the Harriers opened the season with a 17-45 victory over a weak M.I.T. squad, and then completed an 18-43 victory over a stronger Harvard freshman team. These meets were followed by victories over Deerfield and Central Catholic High in a tri-meet, a defeat of a weak St. Paul's team, and an easy win over Tufts freshmen.

In retrospect, the cross-country team has had a fine fall season as the result of depth and spirit along with fine leadership and coaching.

The hockey team began the season poorly, losing to Hope High School 2-0, and to the Boston College Freshmen. The team had picked up momentum by the Christmas holidays, when they journeyed to Lawrenceville to take part in the Lawrenceville Hockey Tournament. The team rolled over Nichols 5-3, and Lawrenceville 3-1 to qualify for the finals. The Blue wasn't strong enough, however, to hold the Ridley College team of St. Catherine's, Ontario.

The Lawrenceville Tournament having served as good practice for the games of the winter term, the team started off well by defeating Nobel and Greenough 3-1. At this point the lineup was fixed as it stood for the remainder of the season. Heading up the first line were Co-Captains Wise and Harrison, and Lower George Gonzales. The second line consisted of Leavitt, Sides and Prahl, and the third of Gibson, Knowles, and Peterson. First defense was Kessler and Stewart, and second defense was Koehler and Mock. The goalie was Bumstead Browne, ably assisted by Lower Lee Gilbert. Tony Lee and Jobe Stevens, valuable assets to last year's team, were lost to injury, so Junior Tim Ladd was brought up as a replacement. The coaches were Messrs. Harrison and Pynchon.

After the Nobel and Greenough game, the Blue slowed down, as they lost to Belmont Hill 1-0, and tied the Bowdoin Freshmen 1-1. The team rebounded to crush Medford 5-1. The game against Deerfield was one of the best-played of the year, but the Blue lost a heartbreaking game 2-1. The team was really hot now, and they forged ahead to take four successive victories, beating Dartmouth Freshmen 5-1, Milton 4-1, Hebron 7-1, and Middlesex 5-1. The Blue faced the perennially-strong Harvard Freshman team with high spirits, but just couldn't get up enough steam, losing 4-0. Coming into the home stretch, the team crumbled Melrose 7-0, and tied St. Paul's 4-4. An Andover hockey team had not tied or beaten St. Paul's for many years.

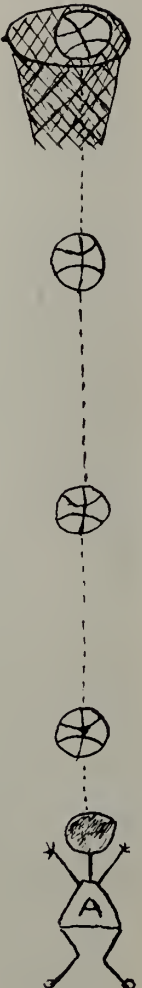

The team moved north to Exeter to face a strong Exeter squad. Playing at its best, the Blue came through with a sparkling 5-0 victory, thus terminating an excellent season with a record of 12-2.

BASKETBALL

Standing: Mr. DiClemente, LeRoy, Mason, Kalkstein, Kenny, Reynolds, Brayton, Sullivan (Mgr.). Sitting: McPherson, Hetherington, Quattlebaum, Hardy (Capt.), Boone, Moonves, Kingston.

The outlook for a fine varsity basketball squad were bright with four regulars returning from last year's team. Led by Captain Rog Hardy, Bernie Boone, Bill Kingston, and Ed Quattlebaum, Coach DiClemente was optimistic about the season. Rounding out the squad were letter winners from last year, Fred Kenny and Bob LeRoy, Senior prep Butch Hetherington, Senior Brad Reynolds, Uppers Tom Brayton, John McPherson, Jack Mason, and Paul Kalkstein, and Lower Mike Moonves and By Bishop.

The Blue travelled to Tufts for the first game against an undefeated Tufts Frosh. Sparked by the efforts of Captain Hardy and Boone, P.A. left the floor at the half behind by only three points. Tufts' platoon system and press paid off in the second half as they pulled away to win handily, 72-48.

The Dekemen rebounded strongly from the opening defeat to trounce Wentworth Institute, 98-45. Brayton sparked the team as he came off the bench to score 17 points. Also scoring in double figures were Hardy, Boone, McPherson, and Moonves. Bowdoin became the second straight Blue victim, 72-58. The backcourt play of Hetherington and McPherson was outstanding. Hardy and Brayton also scored in double figures.

These two wins were followed by a heart-breaking loss to Suffolk. Ahead at the half, 44-41, the excessive fouling by P.A. eventually proved its downfall as the home aggregation lost, 88 to 80. Hardy, Brayton, and Hetherington again led the Andover scoring column. The squad then journeyed to play a very tall and fast UNH Frosh team. The first half was fairly close, but the home team's superiority became more evident in the second half as they pulled away to win, 94-58. Captain Hardy sparked for the losers as he tallied 24 markers.

During the next week PA finally met some prep school opposition and won both contests, but also snapped a two year away game losing streak with both of the wins coming on the opponents' courts. The Dekemen completely overwhelmed Lawrence Academy, 90-46, thanks to a 30-8 first quarter. The reserves saw much action, but Hardy still managed to score a season high of 31 points. Deerfield entertained the Blue in a night game complete with their band and entire student body. Nevertheless, in an outstanding team effort with all five regulars scoring in double figures, PA pulled away in the last quarter after only leading by three at the end of the third to win 71 to 62.

The Blue squeaked by Brown in what was the most exciting contest of the season. Behind by ten points mid-way through the last quarter, PA rallied strongly, mainly on the strength of Hetherington's accurate shooting. He scored ten markers in the last four minutes including the winning goal with only ten seconds remaining. Brown took a last second shot which rolled around the rim and off, sealing the victory, 69 to 67.

Exeter visited PA for the traditional final game with one of the best teams in their history. During the first half, largely because of the play of Hardy and Kingston, the Blue was able to stay reasonably close. At the start of the second half Exeter poured it on and proved why they only lost one game all year. They controlled the boards and were hot from the field throughout the game and won by twenty-five points, 96 to 71. Hardy was high for the Blue with 21, followed by Kingston with 14.

This season the team produced a ten and six record, one of the best in recent years. If the Dekemen could have pulled an upset against Exeter, the season would have been a complete success. However, there was no disgrace in losing to such a fine club. Next year's team could be just as good if not better than this year's if Coach DiClemente can come up with another good big man. Bill Kingston was elected Captain for next year.

TRACK

The Andover Winter Track Team met with nearly complete success as it won four dual meets, lost one, and came in second behind Huntington in the 1960 New England Interscholastic Track Meet. From the first meet onward throughout the season, it was obvious that the P. A. track team was star-studded and strong: John Hartnett equalled the six-foot mark in the high jump on several occasions; Chuck Goodell, Steve Hobson, and Tony Acceta starred in the 600, 1000, and mile, respectively; Bob Cahners excelled in the 28-lb. weight; and Gerry Shea frequently won in the 40 and 300 yard dashes.

With Bob Cahners breaking the school record in the weight, Hobson winning the 1000, and Hartnett victorious in the high jump, Andover was provided with a few bright spots as a talented Dartmouth Freshman team defeated P. A. 57-41. But five days later, Andover bounced back with a resounding 67-41 victory over a fast Harvard Freshmen. Grant threw the discus over 132 feet and won the shot put; Cahners again won in the weight event; Dick Ellegood was victorious in the pole vault; and Shea and Danny Hootstein were first and second in the forty yard dash. At the B.A.A. relays, Andover lost to a fast Exeter squad in the mile relay. One week later the Andover trackmen easily defeated the Brown Freshmen 71-31 and then the Boston Univ. Freshmen 61-43. In each case, the P. A. team's depth in the field events produced victories.

Following these dual meets, P. A. lost to Huntington at the Interscholastics. The Andover squad was able to produce only three victories: Hartnett in the high jump, Grant in the shot put, and the relay team in the 300 yard relay — but again the depth of the squad accounted for the majority of points.

Climaxing a very successful season, Andover defeated Exeter 48-33. With a sweep in the shot put (Houpis, Grant, Beck), a first and second in the high jump (Hartnett and Dinolt) and in the 1000 (Hobson and Accetta) in near-record time, and an outstanding performance by Gerry Shea, tying for first in the 300. Andover concluded a triumphant season.

WRESTLING

Captain Lawrence

He that wrestles with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill. Our antagonist is our helper.

—Reflections on the Revolution in France.

Although Bob Hess, Andy Graham, Kit Dove, and co-captains Larry Lawrence and Al Ross had winning records, the wrestling team finished the season with a disappointing 3-6 record.

During pre-season practice, prospects for the coming campaign were very good, with six lettermen returning from last year; and Coach Lux felt the team would be one of the best in years. The six veterans were counted on to form the nucleus of the team. However, Gardner sustained an arm injury before the start of the season, and never was able to wrestle in an outside match. Also, heavyweight Bailhe incurred a leg injury after pinning his first opponent, and he too was forced to miss the rest of the season.

Despite the loss of these two key men, the record of the team was not as bad as it might appear. Three matches were lost by a margin of less than five points, and thus just ten points meant the difference between a losing season and a winning one.

Four men were selected to wrestle in the postseason interscholastics at Needham; and Larry Lawrence, the only Blue grappler to get past the quarterfinals, took first place in the 167 pound class. Exeter repeated their defeat of Andover in their dual match by copping the team title for the second year in a row.

At the close of the season, Upper Andy Graham, who has already won two letters in wrestling, was elected to captain next year's squad.

SWIMMING

Although a season's record of seven wins and two losses is in itself admirable, it was not the outstanding accomplishment of the 1960 swimming team. The fact that a variety of records were broken stands out far more impressively.

Things really got going as Andover faced Dartmouth. Although the Blue lost the meet, confidence and spirit were greatly bolstered as the medley relay team, consisting of Hornsby, Kennedy, Hackett and Miller, set an Andover record and a Dartmouth pool record in the outstanding time of 1:49.5. Also in this meet, Mike Mayers turned in his best time in the 100-yd. butterfly to take a first in that event. Captain Elliot Miller and Cyrus Hornsby took two of the many firsts that would be credited to them during the season, as they won their respective events, the 100-yd. freestyle and the 100-yd. backstroke.

In the meet against La Salle Academy, Andover's aquatic genius, Dave Kennedy, sometimes called boy porpoise, added his name once more to the record board, as he set a new school and pool record in the individual medley with a time of 2:18.3. Kennedy also splashed his way to victory in the 100-yd. butterfly in the superb time of 59 seconds. A year ago this would have broken two records, but in the interim the great Mr. Kennedy had already broken them. Andover went on to win the meet 62-23, as Hornsby and Miller took firsts in the events and Danny Mahoney placed first in the dive.

A week later, the record-board signpainters had a fit as nine records fell, among them, a Kennedy-styled national prep-school record in the individual medley. Although the Blue lost 30-56, it was a meet that will go down in history as one of the most eventful ever. As a preface to his performance in the individual medley, Kennedy set a new Andover school record and a Deerfield pool record in the 100-yd. butterfly in the amazing time of 57.8. Cy Hornsby and Jerry Keller took first and third in the backstroke, but aside from Kennedy's 2:15.2

in the individual, Andover had seen its last first for the day.

Swimming made the front page of the Phillipian as Kennedy stroked his way to his second national-prep record, this time in the 100-yd. butterfly in 57 seconds flat. This time was obviously also a school and pool record. Kennedy was not the only one to set a record that day. Elliot Miller did it in the 100-yd. freestyle, setting a school record with a time of 52.7 seconds. The 200-yd. medley relay team, consisting of Hornsby, Kennedy, Hackett and Miller, stroked its way to a new school and pool record of 1:48.4.

The following Saturday brought another victory for the Blue as they beat Williston 58-28. The Phillipian, reporting the meet, began thus: "Dave Kennedy set his weekly national prep school record, this time lowering his own individual medley mark to 2:15.0." It seemed that national prep records were becoming habit, a quick change, since before this year Andover had never been able to boast of such a record. All credit should not, of course, be given to Kennedy, since the rest of the team did an outstanding job. The team took six of the eight first places, and won one relay.

Harvard lost to the Andover swimming team for the first time in seven years. Although Andover won 45-41, Dave Kennedy lost his first race of the season, and Pete Winship won his first in three years of varsity competition, proving that Mr. Kennedy, although a great asset, was not absolutely indispensable.

Spirits were high as the Blue went into the meet with Exeter with a 6-2 record. In this meet, the Blue took seven firsts and won 55-31. Kennedy returned to his record-breaking form, as he set a new Andover-Exeter record in the individual medley in 2:19.1. The medley relay team, composed of Hornsby, Winship, Hackett and Ogden also set an Andover-Exeter record. The Andover victory in this meet was a satisfying finish to one of the most successful swimming seasons in many years. Coach Wetmore and the whole team receive the highest praise from the Pot Pourri.

The squash team had a creditable season this year in view of the fact that it had only one returning letterman. Mr. Hoitsma, the coach, and Captain Bill Brown led the team through a busy eleven match season which ended quite evenly. The Blue defeated five out of the eleven teams played. Although the team ladder changed often, the roster ran generally in this way: Brown played number one followed by Pete Svastich in the number two spot and Carl Forsythe at number three. The remaining four positions rotated between Jim Payne, Henry Mudd, Ed Cox, Marty Quinn, and Don Lacey.

A rough pace was set for the team by the many matches with college freshman teams. Of two matches against Harvard, Svastich brought Andover its only win. Against Yale, the best freshman team in the country, the Blue lost all seven matches. However, the tables turned when, against M.I.T., Andover took all matches in only three games apiece. The Blue then edged Dartmouth, 5-4.

Against other schools, the racquetmen first beat Middlesex, 3-2. Forsythe, Svastich, and Mudd all won in close matches. The team then lost to Choate, Exeter, and Deerfield. They rebounded, however, to beat St. Paul's, Brooks, and Middlesex. The outstanding players in these matches were Svastich and Forsythe, who each won all three of their matches. Finally, the team lost a second match to a strong Exeter team, 4-1.

The outlook for next year, when three lettermen will be returning (Svastich, Payne, and Cox), is optimistic. Jim Payne will captain next year's squad.

BOXING

The boxing program at P. A. this winter was considered a large success due mainly to the interest shown and the many returning veterans from last year's program. The success of the program was also measured by its fulfillment of the aims of boxing at Andover. Here at P. A. boxing is considered to be a skill, a skill which can be developed. The object is definitely not to learn how to injure, but to develop coordination and sportsmanship among the participants. These aims were accomplished this year through a lot of hard work and diligent training.

Andover had only two outside matches in boxing, both with St. Paul's School. This is so, because S. P. S. is the only school in this area which has our same basic attitude toward boxing. In the first match against St. Paul's, where there was no referee, those who would have plainly won their matches had scoring been kept were John Treacy, Dan Perrin, and team Captain Larry Gillis. At the home match where our regular official from Lawrence refereed, Treacy, Williams, Gillis, Dave Moon, Rod Young, Al Ward, and Steve Goldin all won their bouts for a score of seven wins, four losses and a tie by John Matthias. Also, for the second year, there were three intra-squad matches with an outside official.

In Coach Mikula's estimation, the outstanding boxers were Treacy, Williams, and Gillis, who has not lost a match in two years against St. Paul's. John Treacy will be next year's captain.

SKIING

Standing: Carter, Campion, Durrance, Ogsbury, Foster. Kneeling: Lobitz, Woll, Edgerly, Verrell, Griswold, Smith.

This year's ski team was perhaps the strongest team Andover has ever produced as a first in the slalom, a second in the downhill, and a fourth in the combined at the Interscholastics prove. Throughout the year, however, the team was plagued by injuries, scholastic ineligibility, or just plain bad luck. Thus it was not until the Interscholastics that they proved themselves.

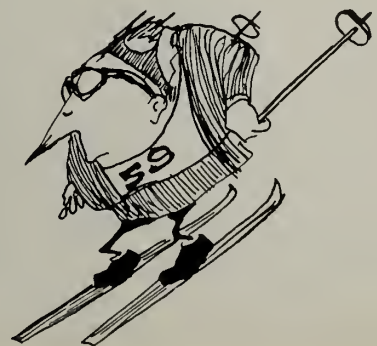

The basic team as it stood for most of the year, though it never once raced complete with every member, was as follows: Downhill and Slalom: Captain Dave Edgerly, Durrance, Lobitz, Carter, and Woll. Cross-Country: Carter, Verrill, Woll, Lobitz, and Edgerly. Jumping: Carter, Woll, Durrance, Smith, and Lobitz.

The first meet of the season was a four school meet with Holderness, Kimball Union, and Hebron at Holderness. Already missing Durrance and Foster, and still lacking practice, the team did not do well and placed third in the meet behind Holderness and KUA. The next week, however, the team swamped the St. Paul's team with a near perfect score. But at the official Exeter meet at Dublin, the team just could not put together enough standing runs in the slalom to qualify for the combined and they lost to both Exeter and Dublin.

Both in the second meet with Exeter and in the meet with the UNH Freshmen, the team was plagued with falls and they barely beat both teams. The much anticipated meet with Proctor, the Wellesley meet, and the Harvard Freshmen meet were rained out.

Thus they went into the Interscholastics with a poor record and were not favored to place. After the first event, however, everyone gave them a second thought — they won the slalom by five points, as much as any event was bon by in the whole meet. And again in the downhill, they came through with a second. But missing three prospective starters, the team could not hold their own in the nordic events, getting an eighth in the jumping and an eleventh in the cross-country. Nevertheless, they placed fourth in the combined standings, as high as any Andover team has ever finished. With all but two of the squad returning, next year promises to be even better.

The baseball team, under the leadership of Coaches Harrison and Miner and Captain Browne, experienced one of its best seasons in many years. The team was at its strongest at the beginning of the season, as it defeated Tufts Freshmen 11-5. Dick Leete and Rog Hardy starred in the opener, as they collected three hits apiece.

After three innings of the season's second game, this one against Newton High School, the Blue found themselves behind 7-0. In the fourth inning, however, Andover came to life, and with the pitching adroitness of Bill Dubocq and all-round skill of Web Harrison, the score changed, as Andover collected run after run to move ahead and win 8-7.

The team's strength did not fade as they went on to beat the Brown Frosh and Lawrence High School. Upper Steve Kehas came close to a shut-out as Holy Cross lost 3-1. The seventh game of the season was the Blue's toughest challenge to date. Four pitchers were needed to squeeze a 10-9 victory out of the M.I.T. Freshmen. The game certainly would not have been so difficult had it not been for seven Andover fielding errors. Web Harrison came through in his usual good form to put the Blue ahead to stay in the fifth inning.

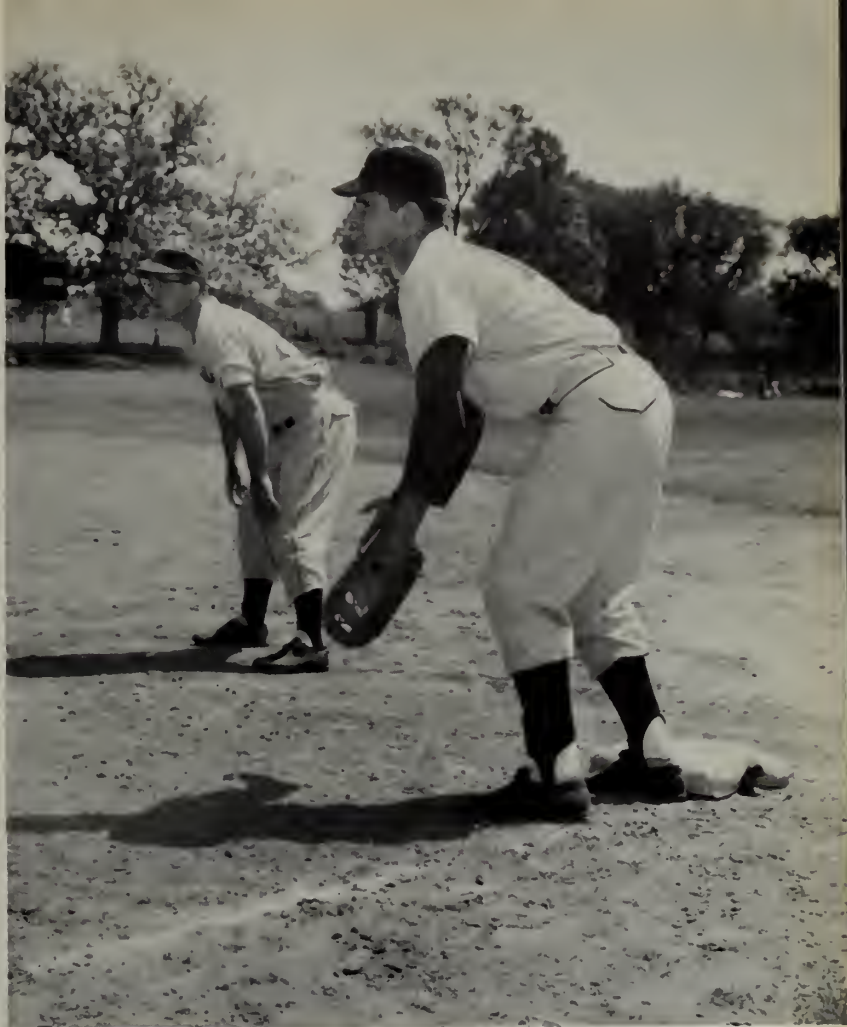

The Blue ran up a string of nine consecutive victories as they overcame Deerfield 11-1 with nine runs in the first inning and the University of New Hampshire 20-0 with twelve runs in the sixth inning.

Facing Dartmouth with high spirits, Andover received its first loss of the season 3-0, collecting only five hits, but leaving thirteen men on base. The team was definitely not up to par, and this handicap on top of an exceptionally strong Dartmouth team could mean nothing but defeat for the Andover squad.

The game against Cushing Academy provided the tenth victory for the Blue. Thus they stood with a 10-1 record going into the Exeter game. Steve Kehas, captain-elect, was chosen to take the mound, and he came through brilliantly with his fourth victory as the Blue produced a 10-1 win. The election of Kehas to lead the team next year was a fitting climax to a superb year. He led the team in batting as well as pitching, sporting a .458 batting average and an 0.92 earned-run average.

The team performed well as a whole: the team batting average was a highly respectable .283, and four of the starting nine bettered the .300 mark. An 11-1 record was a well-deserved symbol of a magnificent season.

T R A C K

With many returning lettermen from the highly successful Winter Track team, the Track Team entered into the Spring eager to face the usual tough competition.

The Blue started the season by crushing Northeastern. In the next meet, P.A. ran over M.I.T. and Tufts in a triangular meet by a score of 101-37-26. Andover placed in every event except the hundred yard dash. Steve Hobson and Tony Accetta turned in impressive performances in their respective events (880 and Mile). In the field events, P.A. captured six firsts and one second.

The next Saturday the Blue returned to Brothers' Field to face Dartmouth. The Green edged out the Blue by a heart-breaking score of 64-62. As in the winter, Dartmouth's sprinters baffled P.A. as they ran to victories in the 100, 220, and 440.

After defeating Brown, the Trackmen ran over Harvard by a score of 74½-54½. Steve Hobson shattered the thirty-nine year old 880 record of 1:59.0 with a blistering time of 1:57.0. Chuck Goodell tied the school record of 24.4 in the 220 yard low hurdles. Dick Ellegood took first places in both the Pole Vault and Javelin.

Andover now entered the Interscholastics eager to avenge the defeat to Hunington in the Winter Prep School Meet, and to win the Spring Prep School Meet for the second straight year. However, a powerful Exeter team, sweeping seven out of thirteen events, and tying for first in two others, went on to take top honors in the meet with 96½ points. Andover finished second with 74½ points. The Blue managed to take first places in the 880, 440, the high jump, the discus, and the Mile. Steve Hobson again broke the two minute mark in winning the 880 with a time of 1:58.4. Tony Accetta turned in a respectable 4:32.4 in the mile.

A week later Andover journeyed north to Exeter in an attempt to gain back its track supremacy. Once again Exeter was too powerful for Andover, as they romped to a 80½-36½ victory. John Hartnett and Dave Grant each set meet, school, and field records in their events. Hartnett climaxed his brilliant high jumping career at Andover with a leap of 6'3½". Grant threw the Discus 143'7"

The Track Team finished the season with a record of 4-2 and a second place in the Interscholastics.

LACROSSE

Eight members of the 1959 New England Championship Lacrosse Squad returned to form the basis of the 1960 team. Led by Captain Jim Okie, the team consisted for the most part of Denny Gallaudet, Joe Prah, Fred Kenny, Dave Edgerly, Paul Kalkstein, Larry Lawrence, Pete Fuller, Wayne Matson, Ward Woods, Mike Mayers, Charlie Kessler and Goalie Al Ross. The team was coached by Mr. Pyncheon and Mr. Hulburd.

The season began with a resounding 22-5 victory over the Tufts Freshmen. The Blue was superior in every respect: ball handling, checking, shooting and passing. Denny Gallaudet was high scorer with five goals. A confident Andover team was ready to face the Mt. Hermon squad, which had just returned from Pre-season practice in North Carolina. Their practice didn't do too much good, however, as Andover held a narrow lead throughout the game and won 6-4.

The team progressed through the season, playing Governor Dummer, Tabor, M.I.T. and Deerfield and losing only the last game. Therefore the squad went into the game with a 5-1 record.

Regaining its former style, the Blue trampled the U.N.H. Freshmen 16-2. Sparkling play and brilliant teamwork highlighted this game, as Captain Okie proved to be high scorer.

In front of a crowd of prom-goers the lacrosse team downed the Harvard Freshmen 9-5 in a game blemished by 43 penalties. It was an exciting game, and the outcome was appropriate for the joviality of the occasion. Four days later the squad faced a Holy Cross Freshman team, and extended their winning streak to three games as they won 11-1.

Andover next faced the Boston Lacrosse Club, who had defeated the Blue for eight straight years. The tide changed this year, though, and in a close, well-fought game, the older Boston team lost 11-8. Goalie Al Ross performed exceptionally well in this game.

For the tenth victory of the season, the team rolled over St. Paul's 9-1 in a generally sloppy game. Poor ground ball work and inaccurate passes made for a sharp decline from the crisp team effort against B.L.C. One more game remained before the crucial game against Exeter. This was against Dartmouth, and the Blue won handily 12-4 over an obviously inexperienced team. The team was back to its normal caliber, and was ready with confidence for the Exeter game: a victory would make Andover New England Champions for the second consecutive year. On a wet, slippery, field the Blue jumped to a fast 3-0 lead and everyone thought that victory was certain. Then Exeter began to creep up, tying, then passing the Andover squad, until they had a 7-5 lead with three minutes to go. A last minute rally produced one Blue goal, but this was not sufficient to win. The season ended with an 11-2 record, with Gallaudet as high scorer, followed by Prah and Okie. Dave Gibson will lead next year's team.

TENNIS

Kneeling: Saxton, Kingston, Forsythe, Cox. Standing: Lauppe, Reynolds, McPherson, Mr. Dey.

Since Mother Nature rained out 3 usual victories, the tennis team finished the season with a mediocre 3-3 record. Led by Captain Whit Foster, the team defeated Brown 9-0, St. Paul's 9-0, and Deerfield 5-4, and lost to Williams, Harvard and Exeter. Number One Man was Nick Saxton, who won almost all his matches. He was followed in the ladder by Captain-elect John McPherson, Carl Forsythe, and Foster.

Probably the hardest fought match was against Exeter. Playing on unfamiliar indoor courts, Andover took 4 out of 6 singles, but then lost all the doubles. The match dragged on late into the night, and the final point was made as the hour approached midnight.

Coach Charles F. Dey, in his final year as tennis coach, did an excellent job, not only with the Varsity Squad, but also developed the lower teams and the beginners, as a full tennis instruction program was introduced.

CREW

Under the expert coaching of William H. Brown, the sixth year of crew at Phillips Academy was highly successful. In the first race of the year, P.A. overpowered Springfield Tech High. However, four days later, M.I.T. handed the Blue a sound defeat on the Merrimac River. After jumping to an early lead, M.I.T. maintained the edge throughout the race to win by three lengths.

On April 23, the Kent Crew travelled to Andover to row against the Blue. Andover jumped to an early lead, but the more powerful and smoother rowing of Kent overcame the Andover lead. Kent went on to beat the P.A. Crew by a length. After the third straight dual meet loss to Kent, the Crew set their goal to revenge the defeat in the Interscholastics.

The Crew journeyed to New Haven and defeated the Yale Freshmen second heavies by a length and one-fourth. The Crew continued its comeback towards an Interscholastics victory as it outstroked Harvard's first freshmen lightweights with a four length victory. Next, The Blue whipped St. Paul's by two and one-half lengths.

On May 21, the Varsity Crew moved a step closer to the Interscholastics as they powerfully outrowed Tabor by two and one-half lengths. Andover demonstrated a smooth and precise style in this impressive victory.

In the final race of the year, the Crew travelled to Lake Quinsigamond at Worcester for the Interscholastics. Once again the Kent Crew was too powerful for the Blue as they rowed to a one and one-fourth length victory over the mile course. At the half, Andover overcame Kent's early lead, but Kent pulled away in a beautiful sprint to win by a length and a quarter. The loss was a disappointing close to an otherwise successful Crew season at Andover.

GOLF

The golf team experienced an unusually disappointing season. It seemed, however, that bad luck was more a cause of the poor season than was incompetent playing.

The season's schedule called for eight matches, four of which were against Exeter. Exeter won three of the matches, but the Blue showed definite improvement throughout the season, losing the final match by a score of  $3\frac{1}{2}$ - $5\frac{1}{2}$ .

Upper Paul Kinnear played in the first position for most of the season, and Captain Tom Trowbridge was second. Bill Stewart, Jeff Brown, Bill McKee, John Stroud, and Jack Gorrie filled out the squad.

The best match of the season was played against Dartmouth. Although Andover took a severe beating, losing  $\frac{1}{2}$ - $6\frac{1}{2}$ , the team showed itself stronger than it had all season. All scores were down, John Stroud producing the best with an excellent 78.

A shake-up in the coaching staff brought Messrs. Best and Baldwin to the coaching positions. After a year's experience working with the team, they should have much better results with next year's team, which will probably be entirely composed of lettermen. Bill Stewart has been chosen to captain the squad.

A WORD OF THANKS FROM THE EDITOR . . .

Obviously, a publication as complex as the POT POURRI cannot be produced by a small group of Seniors without the advice and assistance of many people.

Consequently, we would like to express our thanks to our two advisers, Mr. Harford Powel and Mr. Brendan Farrington, who gave much time and help to the success of the POT POURRI. Mr. Farrington's secretarial staff also deserves a vote of thanks for the use of their office machines and supplies.

Never to be forgotten is Dickie Thiras, who, at her strategic position in George Washington Hall acted both as a collection agency and as a connection with the outside world, as well as being an always helpful and friendly supporter.

Many forms and letters have to be printed to insure a successful yearbook. The man responsible for this service is Mr. William Pedler, to whom we are deeply indebted for his always prompt and efficient service.

In last year's POT POURRI, the percentage of incorrect indications of college choice was very high. This year it is virtually 100% correct, and the credit for this goes to Mr. G. Grenville Benedict, who most obligingly supplied us with an accurate listing of college choices.

We feel that the quality of photography in this year's book is considerably higher than it has ever been in the past. Much of the thanks for this improvement goes to Mr. Murray Modick and Mr. Bruce Bailey who between them produced the finest lot of portraits and group pictures that have ever appeared on the POT POURRI's pages. Also active in the photographic success of the book was Mr. James Findley, who organized the professional photographic activities and personal orders from his New York office.

Perhaps most instrumental in the formation of the POT POURRI were Mr. Victor O'Neill and Mr. Carroll Coates, of Bradbury, O'Neill, Hurley and Thomson, Inc., who not only gave us excellent, high-quality service, but were also as friendly and helpful as possible.

The people who have made financially possible the publication of the POT POURRI are, of course, our kind advertisers and sponsors, without whose help the POT POURRI would have been financially impossible.

Lastly, the Senior Class itself deserves thanks for its cooperation in complying with the many requests of the POT POURRI staff in their efforts to produce what I hope is a better than average POT POURRI.

The American people have always had it—a curiosity which will not be satisfied with dreams or appearances, but must probe until the lands are charted, the germ isolated, the truth exposed.

May they have it as long as there is an America—for if it ever goes, America will not matter.

THE ULTIMATE DEFENSE

Knowledge is the ultimate defense if kept free to repel the evils that besiege mankind. To give knowledge the time to win, it must be protected—on its outer perimeter by weapons.

Weapons are created with knowledge, built with know-how, and produced in quantity with technical skills. Foremost in Grumman's plans for the future are men who have the imagination to create and the insight to solve.
